

colorld.

Christmas Entertainment of All Kinds.

IN THE SUNDAY WORLD

SEE PORTRAITS AND SKETCHES OF NEW YORK' NEW ASSEMBLYMEN.

............

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1888.

ROAD CAR.

cation Study Broke Loose and Created Consternation-An Old Lady Sees It,

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. 1

one of Bridgeport's prominent citizens is studying dentistry in New York. At the dental college where he is following his studies human heads are supplied to assist the student in understanding the human

Yesterday the Bridgeport young man started home for the holidays. He brought a woman's head along with him to study during vacation. He carried it in a paper

The bag with the head was deposited under

MR. PULITZER'S PRESENTATION.

Formally Accepted by Paris.

TORTURED THEIR LITTLE SON.

They Tied Him Up So That He Stood or

His Toes for Hours.

The Jacksons live in a wretched shanty of very much emaciated and he was ravenously

The parents admitted having tied the boy up, but made the excuse that he was a very bad boy. They were committed to await the action of the Grand Jury.

FLORA MOORE NOT ROBBED.

The Actress's Alleged Assailants Tell Their

Story and Are Discharged.

Miss Flora Moore, the actress, who caused and Faints on the Spot.

victim's head.

by the Municipal Council.

boy's stepmother.

1.000

"The Evening World" Will Give Them a Christmas Dinner.

There'll Be Loads of Turkey and All the Fixings.

Every Boy Expected to Do His Duty Like a Man.

THE EVENING WORLD will give a Christmas dinner to one thousand and probably more newsboys at the Hotel Everett, in Park Row next Tuesday. The boys will get tickets for the feast as they come after their papers to-day and on Monday, and at 12 o'clock noon on the great day they will assemble in Theatre alley and Park Row for a grand parade from THE WORLD office to the hotel.

A big band, with a drum major, will head the procession, and the line of march will be through Park Row, Centre-street, Canal street, the Bowery and Park Row again, to the place of banqueting. The gayly painted delivery wagons of The Wonto will appear in the line and will carry such of the boys as would find the walk too much for them.

Seven hundred keys can be readed at once

Seven hundred boys can be seated at once

Seven hundred boys can be seated at once in the big hotel dining-room and cafe. While the first detachment is getting in its fine work, the band will play for the others. But those who wait for the subsequent tables need not fear for the supply of Christmas good things. It will be ample. Every boy will get his fill.

The turkey market may run low, but The Evening World will have all it needs, and there will be the same state of facts about the pies, the cakes, the celery—everything that goes to make up a genuine dinner for such a holiday, not forgetting the whitest of onions in cream sauce, the snowlest and mealiest of potatocs, and the most delicious saffron-hued squash.

Yes, it will be a great Christmas for the boys and a great one for those who have boys and a great one for those who have the pleasure of seeing them enjoy it. Every reader of THE EVENING WORLD can feel like a benefactor on this occasion, for as the paper is the people's, so are its successes and its accomplishments and its generosities the people's.

That newsboy who cannot prepare himself

That newsboy who cannot prepare himself or astonishing feats of mastication between his and next Tuesday will be out of the with his fellows. He will be no boy" who cannot, on the coming occasion, crown a daring attack on turkey and its allies with the demolition of at least two silices of Christmas mince and pumpkin pie.

Mine host Samuel H. Everett, one of the oldest of Gotham's old Bonifaces, said to an Evening World reporter this morning: "We are making big preparations for The Evening World's Christmas dinner to the newsboys. I am fixing up things for the ing World's Christmas dinner to the news-boys. I am fixing up things for the loys just as nice as a would for the upper ten. I feel as a citizen that 1 might to add to The Evening World's good feed, and I guarantee every boy who comes yill get his fill of turkey, pie, celery, coffee and other good things.

"Carpenters are busy preparing four ables, each 65 feet long, for the main dining-boom, and four mire. 26 feet long for the com, and four more, 26 feet long for the afc, or annex. Each table will be decorated with flowers and evergreens, and linen spreads will cover the tables.

Twenty-five union waiters, in their white suits, will serve the boys, and Robert B. Campbell, head waiter, will command the force. Seven hundred boys can be fed at once, and we can do all justice in two hours. Dinner we can do all justice in two hours. Dinner for the boys will begin at 1 o'clock.

HIPPOLYTE'S ACTIVE AGENTS

Dr. Auguste Flies Off to Paris While Carvalho Is Busy Here.

Capt. Haig, of the steamer Tyrian, just ar rived from St. Ann's Bay, on the north coast of Jamaica Island, says that there was no news from Haytı at that port, which he left Neither the Tyrian nor the Adirondack, which arrived from Kingston yesterday, sighted the Galena, nor heard of her.

Dr. Nemonio Auguste, Gen. Hippolyte's messenger, arrived from Washington last night and sailed for Paris on La Bourgogne this morning.

is morning. C. F. Carvalho, a nephew of Gen. Hippo-C. F. Carvalho, a nephew of Gen. Hippolyte and son of an old friend of Mr. Haustedt, of Jimenes & Haustedt, of this city, arrived from Hayti yesterday. He is registered at the Stevens House, but refuses to be seen. All information of Mr. Carvalho was denied at Haustedt's office, but it is believed he is here to purchase munitions of war for the insurgents.

Resolutions on Boycotts.

The Furniture Workers' Section last night adopted resolutions requesting the Contral adopted resolutions requesting the Central Labor Union to amend the regular order of business so that after the reading of the minutes all boycotts directed by the Central body and not withdrawn shall be read; that the same thing shall be done in the sections and the organizations represented in them, and outside organizations be requested to do likewise; that the Secretary of the Central Union furnish the sections with a list of all the boycotts now in progress, and that the section secretaries notify the unions that if pool beer is soid at the places where they meet they shall go elsewhere.

Ice Closing Up the Hudson.

POUGHEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 22.—The ice in the Hudson is fast at New Hamburg, moving the Hudson is fast at New Hamburg, moving from there to Hyde Park, and fast from Hyde Park to Albany. The mercury is only three above zero this morning. The steamer Daniel B. Miller made her last trip from here at 9 o'clock this morning. Her sister, the Has-brouck, will be kept running as long as possible.

Beuch and Bar at His Funeral. The funeral of Edwin O. Perrin, late Clerk o the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, who died at his reaidence, 255 West Forty-second street, on Wednesday, took place at All Souls' Church this morning. Ex-Judge Noah Davis, Judge Van Brunt, John E. Parsons, Judge Clinton Gray, Wheeler H. Peckham and Robert Sewall were among the prominent lawyers present.

The most fashionable color, at present, is the hue of health, and it will never go out of style. Its shades and tints are various, but all of them are exceedingly becoming. It is perfectly astonishing what a change is being daily wrought by Dr. Pirker's Favoatte Parscaiption in the looks of sickly women. Sufferers from any sort of "female weakness" or irregularity, backache or nervous prostration should give it a trial.

THE CLERK SAID THIS WAS A WARM DAY,

He Had a Hand-Painted Cabbage Leaf, and He and a Reporter Swapped Good Stories-There's No Sign of Snow for Us and the Cold Weather Is Going Over to the Canadas-Thermometric Figures

A wintry wind toyed with the Weather Clerk's whiskers this morning while he told an Evening World young man some terrible whoppers about the weather. "It is very warm to-day," he began, mo ping some icicles from his mustache with a fancy green handkerchief.

"Do you know why I brought the wipe with me to-day?" he asked subsequently. Natural candor compelled the reporter to answer that he did not know.

"I thought you couldn't guess. It is a great scheme, and I am going to have it patented. You see, it is hand-painted, and represents a cabbage leaf. The sun was so hot this morning that I feared I would be sunstruck, so, not having a cabbage leaf handy, I spread this in the crown of my hat, handy, I spread this in the crown of my hat, and you see if served the purpose equally well. I got here and was not sunstruck. Now isn't that remarkable?"

"Not half as remarkable as a man that I saw frozen to death in an Elevated train this morning." returned the reporter. "You see he got aboard and thought the steam was on and very foolishly opened his sealskin coat. He was frozen stiff in his seat."

"Oh, he must have come from some very, very warm part of the country and he hai not got acclimated. Really, no healthy person could complain of the cold to-day. I think it was actually warm."

"Well, we will leave it to the thermometer." suggested the reporter.

Reference to that useful instrument at 8 A. M. showed that it only registered 8 degrees above zero, the coldest day we have had so far.

"There now." explaimed the reporter.

far. There, now," exclaimed the reporter triumphantly.
"You're right," replied the W. C. sadly
"That's the coldest day we have had this Summer? What are you giving us?" ejaculated the young man from The Evening Wonld. ... That's right. We weather men have That's right. We weather men have seasons of our own—only two of them, Winter and Summer. Winter begins when we can afford to buy a heavy overcoat. You see I am wearing this light coat still, so I am sure it cannot be Winter."

The reporter glanced at his own light garment and at once saw the philosophy of the Weather Clark's argument.

Weather Clerk's argument.

"Well, for a warm day where is it coldest?" he asked.

"At Northfield it is six degrees below zero this morning, and it is ten below at Quebec. What people generally call the cold weather is moving off over Canada. It will be warmer here to-morrow than it is to-day, but not much.

much.

"There is no sign of snow for us. There was a little snow at Oswego this morning. The wind blew a small gale in this city last night, going at the rate of forty-eight miles an hour.

"At Chicago, the thermometer registers 20 degrees above zero; at 'Frisco, 24 above, and at Galveston, 60. It is raining on the Pacific coast, but throughout the rest of the country it is clear."

Pacific coast, but inroughout the reaction country it is clear."
"Good-day," said the reporter.
"Good-day. By Jove, it is warm," returned the Weather Clerk, and with a solemn wink the men parted.

A SLAP AT CIGARETTE SMOKERS.

Mrs. Cleveland Changes Her Seat in a Car to Avoid the Obnoxious Odor.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] Washington, Dec. 22.-Mrs. Cleveland as much opposed to the use of cigarettes by men as she is to the wearing of hustles by women. This will be doleful news to the cigarette manufacturers.

She returned from Philadelphia this afternoon. She and the maid sat in the front section of the parlor car.

But she had not left Philadelphia far be But she had not left Philadelphia far behind when a gentleman fond of the little ricepapered weed went into the smoking room adjoining her seat and lighted up. He was beginning to find the solace that he innocently sought when Mrs. Cleveland leaned forward and whispered to the maid, who immediately began to wave her hands at the conductor. That official quickly responded and found Mrs. Cleveland much distressed by the sharp odor that insinuated its way out of the smoking-room.

But the cigarette was in order, and the only way to relieve the situation was for the only way to relieve the situation was for the distinguished passenger to change to a sec-tion at the opposite end of the car, where she resumed her novel in contentment and security from the annoying aroma.

She said to the conductor: "I always thought, until now, that I was fond of to-bacco smoke." Indeed, she is, and often as she sits by the side of the President's desk in the library of evenings she is the centre of a dense bank of eigar smoke.

MRS. GEORGE R. JOHNSON FOUND GUILTY.

Sentenced at Tolland, Conu., to State Prison for Life.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] Tolland, Conn., Dec. 22.—The trial of Mrs. George R. Johnson for the killing of her husband, which began eleven days ago, ended this morning. The jury brought in a verdict of murder in he second degree. Mrs. Johnson was sentenced to State prison ### for life.

Quarantined on Hoffman Island The 136 steerage passengers of the French steamer Chateau Lafite, which arrived at Quarantine with small-pox on board yesterday, were transferred to Hoffman Island to-day. The passengers by the Lahn, which also had small-pox on board, were vaccinated and allowed to land.

Cilfton Entries for Monday. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CLIPTON RACE TRACE, N. J., Dec. 22, -Follow

ing are the entries for Monday, Dec. 24; ing are the entries for Monday, Dec. 24:
First Race—Purse $250: three quarters of a mile; seiling allowances.—Fiddlehead, 109: He (formerly Lizzie Betts geitling, 106; Artiona, 104: Artises, 104;
John Arkins, 103; Futurity, 103; Louise (formerly Falenta filly, 69; Village Maid, 98 th.
Becond Race—Furse $1,50; seven-eighths of a mile;
second Race—Furse $2,50; six and one-half furiongs;
selling allowances.—Banbridge, 123; Lomaz, 120;
Tony Pastov, 117; Sir Roddertek, 115; Raveller, 114;
Adouts, 114; Bongster, 112; Marie, 109; Bishop, 129; lb.
Fourth Race—Purse $500; handicap; mile and an sighth.—Wahoo, 121; Briss Boru, 114; Bonnie 8. 13th b. Fourth Race—Purse $500; handicap; mile and an eighth —Waboo, 131; Erian Boru, 114; Bonnie S., 108; Bela, 103; Lancaster, 101 b. Fith Race—Furne $500; one mile.—Baruum, 105; J. J. O'B., 105; Courtier, 105; Ballston, 105; Ovid, 105; Amos, 105 h.

TALKING OF THE WEATHER. HARRY'S CHRISTMAS BOX. IT WAS "PEEKIN'" AT HER.

HE BROKE HIS LITTLE CRUTCH AND HAS A SOMEWHAT EXCITING SCENE IN A RAIL-NOW GOT TWO.

Kind-Hearted Little Boy from Roosevelt, N. J., Read Harry's Letter to Santa Claus Printed in "The Evening World," and Sent Him a Pair That He Had Used When He Was Lame.

A bright-looking lad carrying a little pair of crutches came into THE EVENING WORLD office this morning. Tied to one of the crutches was the following tag:

Who Will Furnish a Crutch?

On Educo of The Pressing World:

Will you please ask Santa Claus to bring a crutch? I am a little boy, nine years id, and I just broke the only one I had.

Is papa is very sick for a long time and can, by papa is very sick for a long time and can, by get me one. I did not tell you I only we one leg, and have to have a crutch to alk with.

III3 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn.

The letter pasted on the tag was clipped from THE EVENING WORLD, and told what little Harry White would like to have in his Christmas stocking.

After delivering the crutches the lad drew himself up proudly and prepared to answer himself up proudly and prepared to answer questions.

"Where did these come from?"

"Roosevelt, N. J.," was the answer.

"Where did you get them?"

"I met a pale, thin little boy on one of the Pennsylvania ferry-boats this morning. He asked if I worked near The Evening World office. I told him yes. Then he asked me to please leave these crutches at the office for little Harry White, and here they are.

"Do you know the little fellow's name?" was asked.

"No, sir; he simply told me that he lived in Roosevelt, N. J.; that he had been lame himself and was now well."

The messenger's name was Philip Koegler and he lives at 25 Hamiton avenue, Brooklyn.

and he lives at 25 Hamiston avenue, Brooklyn.

But who is the little Santa Claus? Surely he will not be too modest to make himself known after such a noble and thoughful anser to little Harry's appeal? The little fellow must have been an angel in disguise, for it is soldom that boys are so thoughtful of the needs of others.

An Evening World reporter took the crutches over to 1113 DeKalb avenue this morning. The house is one of a row of brick flats, and the family lives on the first floor.

floor.

The reporter's ring was answered by little Harry White himself, who came to the door with the assistance of his father's caue.

He led the reporter into the rear room, where all the family was huddled aroun i the stove. The scribe introduced himself and stove. The scribe introduced nimear and then produced the crutches, which he had hidden under his coat.

"Oh, mamma," the youngster exclaimed, his eyes opening wide and fairly dancing with delight.

his eyes opening wide and fairly dancing with delight.

"Ain't tney lovely! Oh, thank you, sir: thank you ever so much!" he exclaimed, and he immediately proceeded to try them. They were just an inch too short, but the addition of a piece of rubber on the ends will make them just the right length.

Harry is a bright little fellow with big blue eyes. These he used in alternately glancing at the reporter and the crutches, which he clasped lovingly in his arms.

"Harry, I guess, had no idea that his Christmas wish would be answered so soon," broke in Mrs. White, a slender, dark-complexioned, pleasant-faced woman.

"He lost his leg two years ago," continued Mrs. White, "by injuring it by a fall. We thought at one time we would lose him, for he was thirteen months in St. Mary's Hospita!. On Thursday ho went on an errand and broke his crutch about a block from home. He had to hop all the way back. While we were sitting Lore that night Harry suddenly said:

""Mamma I'm going to write to The Even."

said:
"Mamma, I'm going to write to THE EVENING WORLD and tell them that I want a new crutch for my Christmas.
"I confess I didn't think it worth while, world the letter. It but he insisted and wrote the letter. It seems as if heaven had answered his request."

'Yes," spoke in Harry, "I wrote it all mysalf to."

myself too."
Harry did not know that the letter had been orinted, for the family is too poor to afford he luxury of a paper.

The father has been sick abed for four months, and on the 1st of January will be ejected from the house for non-payment of Both husband and wife are well educated, the latter being a music teacher; but the duties attendant on the care of a sick hus-band and four children leave her helpless in this respect. They have no idea where they ## will go to next month.

New York Markets.

WHEAT.—May options opened %c. off at $1.08%, declined to $1.08% and recovered to $1.08% at which figure it closed. Dec. opened at $1.02%; Jan. $1.02%; Feb., $1.04%; March, $1.06%; June, $1.08 Market firm. Chicago firm. Liverpool dull.

COTTON.—Futures opened firm at an advance of 3 to 4 points. Dec., 9.40; Jan., 9.48; Feb., 9.62; March, 9.73; April, 9.85; May, 9.95; June, 10.05; Juny, 10.13; Aug., 10.19; Sept., 9.83. Cables ste.dy.

COFFEE—Opened bare y steady at 20 to 35 points decline from las, night's closing quotations, Dec., 15.20; Jan., 15.25; Feb., 15.30; March and April, 15.35; May, June and July, 15.45; Aug. and Sept., 15.45; Oct. and Nov., 15.60. Cables firm.

Pernoleum.—Certificates opened %c. above ast night's closing quotations at 89%c., but soon declined to 87%c. it he principal news of the morning came from Bradford and was a denial by the Ere that the Standard Oil Company would issue Lima certificates on Jan. 1, as has been reported. Shortly before noon the quotation stood at 89%c.

The Ryan Association's Christmas, The Sylvester A. Ryan Association, of the Sineteenth Assembly District, will hold its annnal Christmas reception on the evening of Dec. 25. A handsome souvenir will be presented to each lady.

the arrest of John E. Weish, the comedian, and Miss Mora, the sentimental songstress from London, on a charge of assault and robbery, was present in Jefferson Market Police Court to-day to prosecute the prison-Miss Moore gave her side of the story. She Miss Moore gave nor side of the story. She said she went to the restaurant on the corner of Thirteenth street and Broadway, with Miss Maggie Bardelph, alias "Shorthand Laz." The latter and Moore had words, when Miss Moore was pushed, and fell.

Welsh corroborated this story and raid no robbery had taken place. Miss Moore would not accuse them of robbery, and they were discharged.

discharged. Ketchale Before Supt. Murray.

Court, who is accused by ex-Judge Otterbourg of working in the interest of lawyers, was sum noned this morning before Supt. Murray, who will investigate the charges. Ketchalo is accused of telling a woman to go to a certain lawyer in preference to ex-Judge Otterbourg. Sergeant Fuller says that the woman rould not afterwards identify Ketchale as the policeman who spoke to her.

On a Spree with $3,500. A man who says he is Max C. Manun, a lawyer oarding at Sweeny's Hotel, was arraigned at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning. He was found drunk at the corner of the Bow-ery and Great Jones street early this morning. Several suspicious characters were hovering about him and the police found on him $3,500 in bills. He said in court that he received the money from Judge Brady in Jersey City yester-day. He was held for further examination.

A Pugilist of the Future. John Maloney, fourteen years old, was brought to Essex Market this morning for fight-

"Dats right, Judge; was scrappin'." he ing.

said.
"Are you a scrapper?"
"Well, yer kin just bet I am. I'm a dandy, I am, an' don't yer forget it. I'm goin' ter be one o' der big fellers some day."
"Not a landable ambittion," said the Magistrate. "You're fined $5." Fell from a Bobtail Car.

Mrs. Hepner, a respectably dressed woman of fifty-five years, whose residence is unknown, fell from a crosstown bobtail car this morning at the corner of Canal and West streets, and was severely injured about the head. She was taken to St. Vincent Hospital in a semi-conscious con-Twelve Immigrants Detained. Supt. of Landing Simpson has detained twelve English immigrants at Castle Garden under the Pauper set. Their cases have been reported to Collector Magone. Mr. Simpson stated to-day that 95 per cent. of the able-bodied men who apply for meals and lodgings at Castle Garden are Englishmen.

Seven Persons Believed to Have Lost Dead Woman's Head that a Student of Their Lives. Dentistry Was Carrying Home for Va-

Brave Capt, Jerry Bray Fell Into a Mass of Flame. BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 22.-The son of > Fearful Havoc Caused by the Falling of a Wall.

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 22 .- It is thought that at least seven persons perished in the fire which broke out in A. Strobel & Co.'s which is occupied by the Hall and Brower picture-frame factory shortly after midnight. a car seat and the youth started on his railroad ride intently reading The Evening World. The motion of the car or the moisture from The factory was destroyed and the loss is about $100,000. The entire Fire Department was called out and struggled bravely. Captain Jerry Bray went down with the fifth floor and undoubtedly perished

Soon after ! o'clock the Canal street wall of the building fell, and six persons are believed to have been killed outright or fatally injured.

The motion of the car or the moisture from the head caused the paper bag to crack open and expose the head.

Across the aisle sat an aged lady and an old gentieman from the rural districts. The old lady espied the head and, pointing with a quick gesture, she exclaimed sharply: "See there," and fainted.

The old gentieman was somewhat slow to understand what had frightened her. When the conductor inquired: "What's the matter?" the old gentieman said, "Some one was peekin' at her under that seat," and pointed to the head in the tattered bag.

An investigation followed which disturbed the equilibrium of the young dentist, when he looked under the seat and discovered his paper bag "busted," and himself regarded as a possible murderer escaping with his victim's head. Two unknown men, it is believed, were precipitated into the canal and drowned. Four firemen, two whose names are unknown and Messrs. Morton and Anderson, were fatally hurt.

Brave Jerry Bray must have fallen into a mass of flame.

A number of gentlemen on the train were acquainted with the young man, and explained matters to the satisfaction of the Immediately the wall fell several firemen rushed to rescue their fellows. Five were conductor and passengers.

The head and the dental student left the train at Bridgeport, much to the relief of the old lady, who said: "I'm defful 'fraid I'm goin' to have a fit of the rickets." recovered, but all were more or less injured. Morton and Anderson fatally

It is thought that the fire started in the fifth story in a small varnish room, and can only be accounted for on the theory of spontaneous combustion. As far as known there was no fire about the

The Statue of Washington and Lafavette establishment after 9 o'clock. The building was divided midway by a brick wall, with Paris, Dec. 22, -The group statue of Washingonly two openings, and these closed by iron on and Lafayette, presented to the city of Paris | Goors. by Joseph Pulitzer, editor and proprietor of the The fire was, therefore, confined to the

New York WORLD, has been formally accepted rear half known as the old part of the build-The goods in the front part of the building, #### however, are damaged by wa er. STANLEY WAS THEN SAFE AND FREE.

William and Elizabeth Jackson, a young Perhaps Casati the Italian Was the "White colored couple, were arranged before Recor Pasha" Captured with Emin Bey. der Desher at the Bayonne Police Court to-

IBY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. 1 day on a charge of cruelly torturing their LONDON, Dec. 22 .- The Daily Telegraph's little seven-year-old son. The woman is the correspondent at Zanzibar reports that Stanley in his letters speaks of the vast stores of ivory and numberless oxen in possession of Emin Bey.

West Thirty-first street. Bayonne. The neighbors have for a long time spoken of the brutality with which the little fellow was treated, and yesterday they told the police.

Officers Yore and McDonald went to the shany and found the boy crying in agony. He stood tiptoe in a corner unable to move. A stout half-inch rope, tied to a rafter over-head and nessed into a city posses about his This tends to confirm the correctness of Omar Saleh's report to the Khalifa, that Omar Saien's report to the khalita, that Emiu Bey had a large quantity of ivory and feathers, when he was captured. Both the Telegraph and the Times de-spatches say Stauley writes that Casati was with Emin Bey when he (Stanley) started head and passed into a slip-noose about his body just beneath the armpits, held him in torture. When the officers cut him down he fell to the floor exhausted. His body was south.

This evidence makes it certain that the white traveller surrendered with Emin was the Italian and that Stanley was at last accounts safe and free,

Rather Too " Distant."

There is a pretty well-known railroad man in town who was married not so many years ago and who went for his honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe. On the way up, the bride, who is a very sensible young woman told her husband that she did not want everybody to know that they were married that day, and, know that they were married that day, and, therefore, they were to assume distant relations. The bridegroomsacquiesced. In due time they reached Truckee, and true to what she had told him, he said be would stay awhile downstairs and smoke a cigar. He met some other railroad men, who invited him to join in a friendly game of poker. The temptation was too strong to resist. He played, and was at a late hour violently summoned to disappear. The other railroad men say that the gloomy way in which the twain took the stage coach for Lake Tahoe next morning suggested the thought that the gay young railroad man was already initiated with a vengeance into the already initiated with a vengeance into the trials and tribulations of married life.

Warned in Time to Escape.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

HAZLETON, Pa., Dec. 22,—Lattimer No. 2
slope, on the north side of town, was discovered Policeman Ketchale, of the Yorkville Police to be on fire yesterday morning at 7 o'clock. The first warning the men in the mine had of the danger was an inquiry from the engineer to the bottom asking what caused the large quantities of smoke to issue from the mouth of the mine. The bottom man then found the pumphouse ablaze. Warning was sent to the men employed in the works and prompt action taken towards extinguishing the flames. After several hours of effort it was found necessary to bank up the mouth of the slope. The extent of the fire at this writing is unknown. Three hundred and fifty men and boys are employed in and about the mine. bottom asking what caused the large quan-

Looking Into the Vote-Buying.

Indianapolis, Dec. 22.-Forty witnesses from Wayne, Blackford, Wells and Greene counties were before the Federal Grand Jury on election cases yesterday. The Jury holds night sessions pausing only for a bite at noon and for supper. Assistant District-Attorney Claypool has not yet taken hold of the election cases. There seems to be some question in law as to whether he would be authorized to appear before the Grand Jury 9 social appointment. Thus far acting District-Attorney Bailey has full charge of the election cases. The fees in these cases, especially the so-called Dudley case, are said to amount thus far to several thousand dollars.

Scalded to Death Under His Engine.

St. Louis, Dec. 22.-A freight train on the Belleville and Carondelet Railroad jumped the track a few miles from St. Louis yesterday, the engine overturning and several cars being wrecked. Tom Ash, the fireman could not be extricated until scalded to death, and his brother William, the engineer, and one of the brakemen, were badly injured.

Major Barttelots Marderer Executed. [BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. ] ZANZIBAR. Dec. 22,-The messengers from Tippoo Tib bring the news that the murderer of Major Barttelot had been tried and found guilty and was hanged on July 22 at Stanley Falls.

OBJECTIONABLE MUD PIES.

MIDDLETOWN'S FAMILY SQUABBLE MOST ASSUREDLY TAKES THE CAKE.

Lawyer Lovell Hall Has an Injunction Issued Which Restrains Mr. and Mrs. Brower from Committing Twenty-one Alleged Naisances Some of Them Are Novel and Some of Them Are Natural.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] MIDDLETOWN, Conn. Dec. 22.-Attorney Lovell Hall, of Middletown, was a few days ago arraigned before Judge Calef, charged with assaulting Mrs. W. A. Brower. The alleged assault, particulars of which appeared in The Evening World, was the forcible removal by the said Lovell Hall of a piece of an old carpet from under the feet of the said Mrs. Brower, causing her to fall backward to the floor of the front hall of the dwelling-house, families. The defendant demorred to the complaint. appealed to the Superior Court, and gave bonds in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the April session.

Recently Mr. Hall went to Essex with two Recently Mr. Hall went to Essex with two creditable witnesses, and the result was the issuing of an injunction by Judge Phelps forbidding the continuance of twenty-one alleged nuisances and encreachments by W. A. Brower and his wife, Josephine Brower. The same document brings a civil suit in which Mr. Hall claims $500 damages.

The papers in the case were served Thursday evening upon Mr. and Mrs. Brower by Constable Henry Gibbons, of Middletown, the defendant being cited to answer in the Superior Court on the first Tuesday in January. The twenty-one items of the injunction add to the novelty of this somewhat notorious and curious case.

Following is a summary:

1. The defendants are forbidden to occupy more than one-half of the premises and they must not make things disagreeable to the Hall family.

2. They are forbidden from keeping an old weather-beaten carpet over the carpet in the hall of the dwelling occupied by the Browers and the Halls.

3. They must not harbor Sam Spooner's dog from the yellow house, said dog having bit a Swede girl employed by the Hall family.

4. They must not keep the night-latch un-locked.
5. Raw meat must not be kept on the cellar shelves without plates.
6. Coal must not be kept on a common passageway in the cellar.
7. The Browers must not harbor a thieving

8. Croquet and football playing on Sunday

s. Croquet and football playing on Sunday is prohibited.
9. They are forbidden to dig up the lawn or burn the turf.
10. They must not harbor a young woman of loose behavior and doubtful reputation.
11. They must not allow their ten-year-old son and said young woman to visit a certain part of the premises improperly together.
12 AND 13. Said young son must not appear in common passageways undressed, and Mr. Brower must not himself appear in common hall undressed.

hall undressed.

14 AND 15. Defendants must not when returning from low shows at a late hour dis-turb the Hail family. 16 AND 17. They must not allow children to make mad pies on the front-door steps or strew the common yard with papers or rub-bish. 18. A screeching parrot must not be hung under the complainant's dining-room win dow, 19. The defendant's wife is forbidden to smoke tobacco in public view on the premises.

20 AND 21. The defendant must not engage in domestic broils which disturb outsiders, or keep doors open into the public hall while doing offensive cooking.

THE $100 BILL VANISHED. Whereupon McGuire and Dowling Had a

Rough and Tumble Fight, John, or "Mug," McGuire, who keeps stable at 235 West Forty-sixth street, and Mortimer T. Dowling, a Boston dealer in racing stock, both well known in sporting racing stock, both well known in sporting circles, were before Justice Murray at the Ha lem Court this morning.

Both were charged with fighting and Dowling accused McGuire of stealing a one hundred dollar bill from him.

The men were at Kearns's road house, at Seventh avenue and One Hundred and Thirty-second street, at midnight last night and in the course of a heated, and spritucus discussion Dowling offered to make a wager and laid down a $100 bill as a forfeit.

The bot was not accepted and he put the bill back in his pocket. Later on he found the bill in his pocket was a one-dollar bill and accused McGuire of having the other.

They fought and were arrested.

Justice Murray refused to entertain the larceny charge and held Dowling in $300 on McGuire's charge of assault.

SHOT HER MOTHER DEAD.

A Young Girl Kills Her Mother with an Old Pistol Supposed to Have Been Empty. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, ]

Nonuistown, Pa., Dec. 22.-A terrible ragedy occurred at Port Kennedy, near here, this morning, A peddler who had called at the house of Mrs. Kawalski left an old pistol there. A daughter of the family picked it up, and for childish sport pointed it at her mother saying, "Mother, I'll snap it at you,"

The child suited the action to the word. The pistol was discharged and the mother fell dead. The child and father are frantic with grief. The pistol was supposed to be empty. Think It Is All Settled for Blaine. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
AUGUSTA, Mc., Dec. 22.—It is the belief here that Mr. Blaine has already been offered the

Fair. Colder Weather. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.

State portfolio, and his letter of acceptance will be given to the public in the near future.

For Eastern New York-Fair, colder; winds becoming pari-

-Weather indications

The Weather To-Day.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Sullivan's $5,000 Forfeit Covered

Now for the Heavy-Weight Champion Fight.

This Morning.

The Money Deposited With the New York "Clipper."

John L. Sullivan's $5,000 forfeit was covered in the Clipper office this morning. his challenge was accepted by Jake Kilrain, and now the only thing wanting to insure a meeting between these two pugilists in a 24-foot ring is a satisfactory agreement between the two men as to the referee and time and place of the fight.

Shortly before noon to-day William E. Harding, Richard K. Fox's sporting editor, accompanied by a young man calling himself Louis B. Allen, called at the Clipper office, and inquired for Charley Colvin, the sporting editor.

Mr. Colvin was at his desk, and when he greeted the gentlemen he was handed an envelope in which was a certified check on the Chatham National Bank for $5,000 made out to Louis B. Allen and a paper signed by Jake Kilrain, which reads as follows: reads as follows:

In reply to Mr. John L. Sullivan's challenge to meet me in the arona for $10,000 a side and the championship of the world, please state that I am ready to meet Mr. Sullivan to battle for $10,000 a side and the Police Gazette diamond belt, which represents the championship of the world.

sto,000 a side and the Police Gazette diamond belt, which represents the championship of the world.

To prove that I am in carnest and mean business, my friend and backer has deposited $5,000 to-day with the proprietor of the Clipper who, I am willing, shall be the final stakeholder.

Myself or representatives will be ready to meet Mr. Sullivan or his representatives any day they name, giving me due notice, outside the lurisdiction of the United States to arrange a match. Yours.

Dec. 22.

Champion of the World.

When Mr. Colvin had read Kilrain's answer to Sullivan he handed the check for $5,000 to Mr. Allen and he signed it over to the Clipper, when, after receiving Mr. Colvin's word that it was all right, Messra, Harding and Allen took their departure.

Mr. Colvin said a few minutes after the check had been put into the Clipper's safe:

"I can not make out the signature of the friend of Kilrain's who drew the check, but as it is certified it is all right."

This is the same form in which Richard K. Fox deposited $2,500 with the Clipper a short time ago when he was willing to back Kilrain against an unknown for $10,000 a side.

The check is as good as a receipt, or, more correctly, when a check is given no receipt is neces ary, for the check itself is as good as a string on the money.

However, Mr. Colvin says everything is all right, and now the men will have to meet and make final arrangements.

nd make final arrangements.

ALL ARE NOT FOREIGN PAUPERS. Commissioner Ulrich Talks About Our Immigration Laws.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 22.-Msjor Ulrich, one of the Emigration Commissioners, says:

cerned, the Commissioners of Immigration have absolutely no responsibility or authority have absolutely no responsibility or authority looking to its enforcement.

That occasionally persons should be permitted to land at Castle Garden who subsequently, for one reason or another, become a public charge is not singular. It would require more than human foresight to single out such cases as those over which Tass World makes so much.

I have no doubt that good results will follow a thorough investigation of the entire

"I have no doubt that good results will low a thorough investigation of the entire question of immigration, but such results will be injured by exaggeration on the part of newspapers, members of Congress, and even organized charities.

"The question is too important to be dealt" this may but a broad sourit of intelligence. with in any but a broad spirit of intelligence and truth. It is to be deprecated that the impression should be given that this country is being made a dumping-ground for foreign paupers, criminals or lunatics, and that such persons arrive in herds, for such is simply not the feet."

AN ENEMY THEY CANNOT REPULSE.

Nine Companies of Regulars Fighting Fire -Little Hope of Saving Fort Assinabolue. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

FORT ASSINABOINE, Mon., Dec. 22.-What first appeared to be but a small prairie fire was discovered about 6 o'clock last evening six or seven miles west of the fort. Before 7 o'clock, however, the fire had gained such headway as to cause great alarm for the safety of the garrison.

The wind was blowing at the rate of forty miles an hour, and in a direct course to sweep over the fort.

Three companies of cavalry and six of infantry were at once organized and despatched to fight the fire. Despite all their efforts the fire gained steadily, and at 2 o'clock this morning the wind was blowing the fire directly into the garrison inclosure.

The facilities for extinguishing fire are very limited in this locality and the prospects of limited in this locality and the prospects of saving the post are anything but encour ## aging. 'The loss in such a case will be very heavy, as the winter's supplies are all in store in the quartermaster's department. SO WANAMAKER IS A CERTAINTY!

The Philadelphia "Times" Says He Will Be Secretary of the Interior or P. M. G. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 22.-The Times prints the following despatch from Indianapolis: the following despatch from Indianapolis:
John Wanamaker will be a member of the new Cabinet. He has not been formally notified of his appointment, but he knows that a portfolio will be tendered to him at the proper time and the President-elect knows that Wanamaker will accept. He will be either Secretary of the Interior or Postmaster-General.

This Is Forefather's Day. The flags are flying on the City Hall to-day

by order of the Mayor, in honor of Forefather, Day. The Mayor has also ordered the flag up on Christmas and New Year.